

BIZBASH

10 New Boston Venues for 2019 Fall Meetings and Events

The restaurants, hotels, conference centers, outdoor spaces, and more in Boston suited for meetings and events this fall.

BOSTON—Here's a look at new Boston eateries, nightclubs, outdoor venues, conference areas, private rooms, and other spaces for all types of fall meetings and events. The new and renovated Boston venues are available for corporate parties, fund-raisers, business dinners, teambuilding activities, client entertaining, meetings, weddings, and more.

Williams Inn

Spanning 58,000 square feet, the 64-room Williams Inn opened in the picturesque Berkshires in August. The property features 3,214 square feet of meeting and event space spread over a variety of unique rooms. Options include the 2,808-square-foot ballroom, which seats 135 guests for a classroom-style event or holds 375 for receptions, and has access to a stone patio, lawn, and natural areas. It can also be divided into three smaller sections. Two smaller meeting rooms, which measure 310 square feet and 394 square feet, respectively, can each seat 15 people classroom style or 20 for a theater-style event.